Informatie

This apartment on the second floor offers a unique sense of freedom, light, and tranquility within the transformed church building. From the living space and terrace, you overlook the green landscape and forest surroundings around the building, creating a truly peaceful and relaxing living experience from a higher level.

What makes this apartment especially unique is its position with facades on three sides. This allows for an abundance of natural daylight, multiple views, and a strong connection to the surrounding environment, giving the apartment an exceptionally open and spacious feeling within the building.

The generous living room with open kitchen and the terrace together form one inviting living space where indoor and outdoor living blend naturally. With two comfortable bedrooms, characteristic church architecture, and a unique position within the building, this apartment offers a stylish and peaceful living environment with an exceptional quality of living.
